

25th Anniversary THEOLOGICAL HORIZONS

THEOLOGICAL HORIZONS supports both Christians and seekers in academia by advancing theological scholarship and by providing a welcoming home for engaging faith, thought, and life.

BONHOEFFER HOUSE

Theological Horizons is centered just steps from the University of Virginia at the Bonhoeffer House. The Bonhoeffer House, home to the Marsh family, is a gathering place for students, professors, community members and church leaders who come together for rich conversations about integrating the practices of theology into everyday life.

"A life of faith is a life of gratitude...always being more surprised by the abundance of God's goodness and love. How can such a life not also be a joyful life?"

– Henri Nouwen

Gratitude is our attitude—towards you! For more than twenty-five years, people like you have supported this ministry and provided for the engaged Christian thinking and discipleship that transforms lives, convictions and actions.

In this newsletter we acknowledge the more than 250 partners who gave financially in 2016. Many more friends pray for us faithfully. You volunteer your time to speak at our forums. You feed hungry undergrads, you mentor students, and do much more. To each of you we say, "THANK YOU."

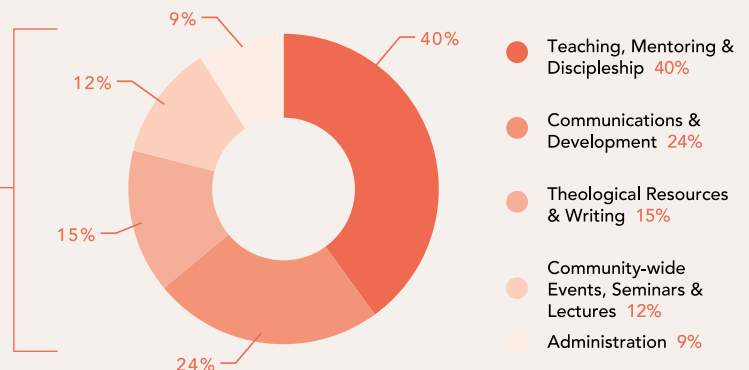

Your generosity is key. Why? Well, because our annual fund goal is $171,000—and every dollar will come from individual givers like you, generous folks who make gifts ranging from $20 on up to $15,000.

Additional Theological Horizons funding is provided by the Lilly Endowment, supporting our Horizons Fellows and Perkins Fellows programs; and the Gloria Dei Foundation, launching a brand new Vintage Saints and Sinners Curriculum for Groups and Individuals.

A joyful life. That's how we experience the work of Theological Horizons every day. You are the channels of God's surprising abundance and love. And we are grateful!

Karen Wright Marsh, Executive Director

HOW WE USE OUR TIME

Tending Our Souls: Lent & Easter eDevotionals

God is inviting you, right now, to taste God's goodness and grace throughout the days of Lent. "Even now," declares the LORD, "return to me with your whole heart." (Joel 2:12) Will you slow down and prepare to savor the full Resurrection joy of Easter? Let's share this journey together. Each Sunday through Easter we send out an eDevotional, an email compilation of Scripture, poetry, images and Vintage wisdom. Our Theological Horizons Lenten and Easter eDevotionals are by (free) subscription only. Email Karen at karen@theologicalhorizons.org and then watch your inbox!

Our website is jam packed with blog posts from students, fresh news and photos, video and audio talks from guest speakers like Philip Yancey, Susan Yates and John M. Perkins.

Visit www.theologicalhorizons.org often for the latest resources.

The Real Deal: Faith and Work Forum

What are the untold personal stories behind the LinkedIn profiles—the complex struggles and surprising joys at the heart of faith, work and life? Leaders from across the business world open up their authentic stories to the Faith and Work Forum, our monthly gathering of students, faculty, staff and community members.

Over lunch in Pavilion X on the UVa Lawn, we've seen living examples of meaning filled, purpose driven believers, from Robbie Berndt, Pamela Sutton-Wallace and Anthony Lazaro to John Stacey and Cindy Brinker Simmons. Two more Faith and Work Forums are scheduled this semester, on March 23 and April 20. Join us!

We serve beyond these walls, too, with public lectures, forums, seminars, international writing competitions, publications, online resources, community engagement and much more.
